

The association's goal is that the truth be established and that justice is done. It will assert the rights of the family of Sophie Toscan du Plantier and engage the authorities to revive and to lead the investigation. It will work to harmonize at European level both French and Irish legislation in the interest of the protection of victims and their families.

The Association welcomes all those who wish to move forward on the way to the truth. All the skills, ideas and contributions are welcome for the search for truth.
